

Seattle, WA

Washington's largest city (570,000) and the metropolis of the JVC: Northwest region, Seattle is a major Pacific port situated between Puget Sound and Lake Washington with the Olympic and Cascade mountain ranges closely visible to the west and east on a clear day. The best thing about Seattle may be the world of ocean and fresh water which surround it; the worst feature its dependence on the car. Seattle offers abundant opportunities for involvement in urban issues, peace, justice and environmental work, and active church participation. This is home to the Jesuits' Seattle University, one of two Jesuit universities in our Northwest region. JVs have served here since 1970.
